

6th Biennial Apprenticeship Awards Ceremony

Monday, January 31, 2005

Apprentice Leadership Award – This award is granted to apprentices who have demonstrated outstanding performance throughout the term of their apprenticeship. The nominees were judged on three factors: related instruction, on-the-job performance, and other accomplishments; i.e., community service and skill competition participation, or other personal contributions or services.

Construction

Gabriel Gutenberg

Central Wisconsin Sheet Metal Area Joint Apprenticeship Committee and

Adam Harwood

Milwaukee Area Plumbers Joint Apprenticeship Committee
Andersen Plumbing, Inc.

Industrial

Dave Campbell

Harley-Davidson Motor Company

12th Biennial Wisconsin Apprenticeship Hall of Fame Banquet

The Wisconsin Apprenticeship Hall of Fame was founded in 1983 by the Wisconsin Apprenticeship Advisory Council and is sponsored by the Wisconsin Biennial Labor-Management-Government-Apprenticeship Conference. The Hall of Fame was created to honor individuals who made an exceptional contribution to the success of the Wisconsin Apprenticeship System during their working lifetime. The following new members join the 68 previous Hall of Fame inductees.

Robert Bishop

Served Tool & Die Apprenticeship with Chilton Metal Products
Retired Field Representative, Bureau of Apprenticeship Standards

Joan Braun

Co-Chair, Wisconsin Apprenticeship Advisory Council Member of Milwaukee Area Plumbers JAC & Southeast WI Steamfitters JAC
Plumbing & Mechanical Contractors Association of Southeastern Wisconsin

Gary Brozek

Served Plumbing Apprenticeship with Tweet Brothers Plumbing
Member of Green Bay Area Plumbers JAC and State Plumbing Apprenticeship Advisory Committee
Business Manager for Plumbers & Steamfitters Local 298

John Brukbacher

Served Carpentry Apprenticeship with Jerry Brad, Inc.
Coordinator for the Southeast WI Carpentry Training Fund
Retired Training Director, Southeast WI Carpentry Training Fund

Charles (Chuck) Parr

Served Line Worker Apprenticeship with Adams Marquette Electric Cooperative
Circuit Instructor for the Wisconsin Vocational Technical Adult Education System
Retired from Dairyland Power Cooperative

Edgar (Ed) Smith

Served Iron Working Apprenticeship with Madison Area Iron Workers JAC
Instructor for the Wisconsin Technical College System
Retired Apprenticeship Coordinator